1. The general public of Inchon and Seoul is unhappy under the Communists, will welcome the return of ROK and UN forces, and probably will cooperate with any forces when they arrive.
2. Korean oil storage company stocks in Inchon are exhausted. All gasoline and kerosene stocks have been removed from the storage area. All diesel fuel was burned by American bombing.
3. The narrow-gauge railroad between Inchon and Suwon is still operating. It runs at night to Suwon transporting goods toward the front. However, the railroad between Inchon and Yongdungpo (126-54, 37-51) and Suwon is inoperative. Han River boats carry the bulk of the freight between Seoul and Inchon.
4. The rail and highway bridges at Seoul are broken but there is a military bridge over the river near the other bridges.
5. About 1 month ago there were 5,000 troops in Inchon. Most of these have left for the front, leaving approximately 1,000 troops at Inchon.
